

The poet Anthony Hecht returned from combat in WW II devastated by the horrors he had seen. Soon after, he established a lifelong connection to Italy that began with a move to the island of Ischia, and ended at the Bogliasco Foundation, where he wrote his final poems in 2004.

Please join us for a Bogliasco Foundation event in partnership with
Casa Italiana Zerilli-Marimò at NYU

ANTHONY HECHT'S ITALIAN JOURNEY

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10, 2018, 6 PM

CASA ITALIANA ZERILLI-MARIMÒ AT NYU
24 West 12th Street, New York City

A TALK BY DAVID YEZZI
2017 BOGLIASCO FELLOW

Kindly RSVP by October 3 to dev@bfny.org

Anthony Hecht crossing the Atlantic, circa 1950

Building on research he developed during his 2017 Bogliasco residency, Johns Hopkins University Professor David Yezzi will discuss the crucial impact of Italian art and culture on Hecht's personal and creative trajectory.

The Bogliasco Foundation is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization that supports the arts and humanities by providing residential fellowships at its Center near Genoa, where gifted artists and scholars of all cultures come together to connect, create and disseminate significant new work.

www.bfny.org