

BOGLIASCO FOUNDATION

RESIDENTIAL FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

Located in the town of Bogliasco on the Italian Riviera, in a region of extraordinary beauty that has stimulated creative expression for centuries, the Bogliasco Foundation offers one-month residencies to individuals of all ages and nations who can demonstrate notable achievement in the arts and humanities.

The Foundation's Study Center operates as a cultural crossroads: providing ideal work conditions for individual projects, encouraging inquiry in an intimate group setting, and facilitating transformative exchange across disciplines. In conversing over shared daily meals, Fellows discover the creative potential of being the sole ambassador of their discipline in a diverse community that includes early, mid and late career individuals. As communication patterns shift, perspectives broaden, fresh ideas emerge, and projects evolve in intriguing ways, often leading to new collaborations. Fellows tell us that the unique environment fostered at the Study Center influences their work for years to come.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Bogliasco Fellowships are awarded to gifted artists and scholars without regard to nationality, age, race, gender, or religion, working on projects of any subject area in the following disciplines: Archaeology, Architecture, Classics, Dance, Film/Video, History, Landscape Architecture, Literature, Music, Philosophy, Theater, and Visual Arts.

Each semester, applications in English, French, Italian and Spanish may be submitted on the Foundation website. A rotating, international selection committee of distinguished professionals evaluates applicants in each discipline based on demonstrated achievement in their respective fields and the quality of the project proposal. The Foundation gives preference to those whose applications suggest that they would be comfortable working in an intimate, international, multilingual community of scholars and artists. Please note that Bogliasco Fellowships are not awarded to students currently in a degree-granting program.

The Foundation awards approximately 60 one-month Fellowships each year in seven cohorts during the fall and spring semesters: September-December, and January-May.

STUDY CENTER FACILITIES

Villa dei Pini is located close to the Via Aurelia, which follows the traces of the ancient road built by the Romans to connect their capital to Ventimiglia and France. The property features a mature Genoese garden, shaded by pine trees, that drops steeply to the rocky shore of the Mediterranean. While surrounded by a bustling semi-urban environment, the villa and its gardens offer an oasis of calm, with spectacular views of the Mediterranean Sea and the Ligurian coastline.

Bogliasco Fellows are provided with living quarters (bedroom with private bath), board, and a work space. The music studio is equipped with an upright piano, a keyboard, a MOTU 828 mkII interface, and a small stereo system. The visual arts studio has basic equipment for painting, sculpture and graphics. The 400 square foot choreography studio features a sprung floor with Marley, a sound system, and optional 10 x 7 foot high mirrors. All work spaces are equipped with ample work surfaces, a desktop computer and printer, and internet service, which is also accessible throughout the Study Center.

PRACTICAL CONSIDERATIONS

Although there is no cost for a residency, Fellows are responsible for their own travel to and from the Study Center, as well as project materials and any personal expenses incurred during the fellowship period. Fellows may be accompanied by spouses/partners, who will be charged a daily fee of $30 to help defray the cost of meals. Although the Foundation accepts collaborative Fellowships, applicants must submit separate applications and be prepared to share living quarters and/or studio space at the Study Center. The Study Center cannot accommodate children or other family members during residencies.

Through the support of generous donors who share our commitment to the arts and humanities, we are pleased to be able to offer Special Fellowships from time to time. Offered in partnership with other organizations, our Special Fellowships are dedicated to specific disciplines and may include travel stipends. All applicants are automatically eligible for Special Fellowship status, and need not send any additional application materials.

APPLICATION DEADLINES

Application deadlines are as follows: January 15th for the subsequent fall semester, and April 15th for the subsequent spring semester. For more information and to apply online, please visit the Foundation's website: www.bfny.org.
