

THE BOGLIASCO FOUNDATION
LIGURIA STUDY CENTER FOR THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES

2010-2011 ANNUAL REPORT

“It was nothing less than a privilege to spend every single day in a setting so equally cultivated and untamed. There was always so much to look at, smell, taste and listen to. It inspired in me endless ideas and experiments and generated so much tangible, usable material.”

— Karen Sherman
Bogliasco Fellow 2010

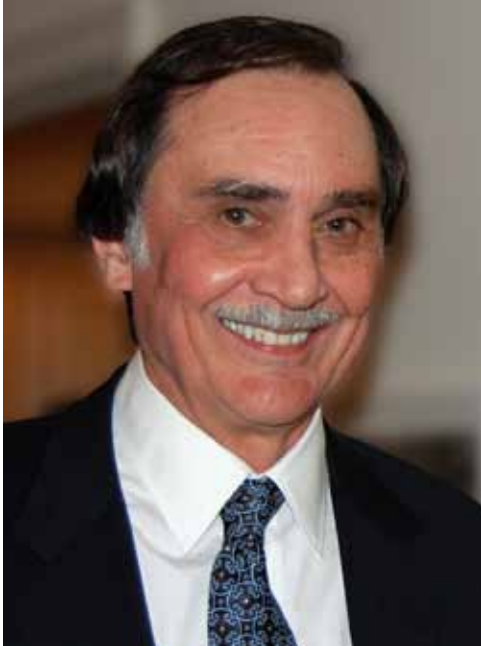

The Bogliasco Foundation

was created as a non-profit operating foundation in 1991 with the sole mission of running the Liguria Study Center for the Arts and Humanities. The Liguria Study Center, which is located on the Italian Riviera in the village of Bogliasco, provides residential fellowships for qualified persons working on advanced creative or scholarly projects in the arts and humanities. The Study Center is one of the few residential institutions in the world dedicated exclusively to all of the humanistic disciplines. Since its inception, the Study Center has hosted more than 650 Fellows from 40 countries.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Dear Friends,

I would like to present the Bogliasco Foundation's Annual Report for the fiscal years 2010 and 2011. During 2010, the Foundation changed its fiscal year from a calendar year to an academic year. We refer to the six-month period from January 1 through June 30, 2010 as fiscal year 2010. In accordance with the academic year, fiscal year 2011 began on July 1, 2010 and lasted through June 30, 2011.

During this eighteen-month period, we hosted 82 Fellows at the Liguria Study Center, who came to pursue projects in art history, classics, creative writing, dance, film, history, literature scholarship, music composition, philosophy, theater, and visual arts. Our Fellows came from fifteen different countries such as Argentina, China, the Netherlands, Romania, and South Africa. Their projects included:

- An evening-length puppet theatre piece
- A biography of the American doctor poet William Carlos Williams
- An opera about a Tibetan nun who was imprisoned at the age of fifteen for publicly supporting the Dalai Lama
- Site-specific choreography to be performed at the Guggenheim Museum in New York in response to the exhibition Lee Ufan: Marking Infinity
- A book about the attempted assassination of the pope in 1564
- A public art project to transform a parking garage into an instrument of light and sound

We welcomed two new members on the Bogliasco Foundation's Board of Trustees: Lisa Paolozzi and Patsy Tarr. Lisa is the Founder of OptIn, an organization that brings together a network of women professionals with companies that are willing to think differently about how to structure work arrangements. Patsy is the Founder and Editor-in-Chief of 2wice, a dance-related magazine published digitally twice per year.

In staff news, Bogliasco Foundation Trustee and Founder Anna Maria Quaiat became Director Emerita of the Liguria Study Center in 2010. The Foundation would not be here today without Anna Maria's vision, which helped to get things started, and her guidance, which has been essential in shaping the Idea of the Liguria Study Center. While we will miss Anna Maria's presence, it is fortunate that when the time came, our colleague Ivana Folle was qualified to step in as Director. Ivana has been with us since the Study Center opened its doors in 1996, and I believe that the Foundation will prosper under her supervision in the years ahead.

In 2010, Laura Harrison was elected Vice President of the Foundation. In this new role, Laura will serve as an ambassador to give the Foundation a voice at special events, conferences, and public forums around the world. As you can read in the special events section of this report, she is already off to an impressive start.

On behalf of my fellow Trustees, I would like to express deep gratitude to the people who make our work possible. I would like to thank our generous donors, whose vital support contributes to efforts such as providing travel reimbursements to Fellows in far-away places. I would also like to thank our advisors around the world for sharing their time and expertise. Last, but not least, I would like to applaud the members of our staff, who are recognized time and again in Fellows' reports for the outstanding care and attention to detail they display every day. The Foundation is fortunate to have this group of friends and family whose combined efforts make the Liguria Study Center such an extraordinary place.

With best regards,

James S. Harrison
President
The Bogliasco Foundation

“At Bogliasco—with the sound and smell of the sea as glorious backdrop—I created some of the best work of my life. I regard my time at Bogliasco as the finest residency experience I have ever had.”

— Tom Cipullo

SPECIAL EVENTS

In 2010 and 2011, the Bogliasco Foundation hosted many events and gatherings for our friends on both sides of the Atlantic.

On May 7, 2010, the Foundation's Trustees and supporters came together for a private tour of the exhibition, Picasso, at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York. The tour was led by Gary Tinterow, Chairman of the Department of 19th-century, Modern and Contemporary Art.

In June 2010, the Foundation was pleased to take part for the second time in the Festival Internazionale di Poesia in Genoa. This is one of the most important poetry events in Italy, featuring performances, conferences and readings in different locations throughout the city. We would like to thank Bogliasco Fellows Flavio Ermini ('02, '10), Ida Travi ('02), Julian Stannard ('08), and the Romanian poet Svetlana Cârstea for reading their work.

In September 2010, the Liguria Study Center was featured in the Giornate Europee del Patrimonio, an annual event held by the Ministero dei Beni Culturali in which special events and tours are organized in private locations that are not usually open to the public. Bogliasco Foundation Trustee and landscape architect Gianni Biaggi de Blasys led a tour through the Study Center's gardens followed by a discussion given by Silvia Barisione, a curator at the Wolfsoniana exposition, using the Villa dei Pini as an example of the eclectic architecture found along the Ligurian Riviera at the turn of the 19th century.

While in residence in October 2010, Bogliasco Fellow and composer Tom Cipullo was invited to participate with Genoese composer Massimo Lauricella in Violinismo oggi, nel nome di Paganini, a concert held as part of the program for the 2010 International Paganini Prize for young violin players at the Carlo Felice Opera House in Genoa. The concert featured Tom's work for violin and piano, Passionate Sacrament, performed by violinist Roberto Sechi and pianist Roberto Mingarini. Following the performance, the composers led a discussion on modern composition for violin chaired by Bogliasco Foundation Advisory Committee Member Roberto Iovino.

On October 27, 2010, the Foundation hosted a reception for Trustees and supporters at Michael's restaurant in New York City, which featured a reading by Bogliasco Fellow Monique Truong ('05, '11). Monique read a selection from her novel, Bitter in the Mouth, which was written in part at the Liguria Study Center.

From November 2010 through January 2011, the Foundation was pleased to collaborate with the Superintendency for Architectural and Landscape Heritage of Liguria and the City of Genoa to present an exhibition of the work of Raimondo Sirotti at the Museo di Palazzo Reale in Genoa. The exhibition entitled Mediterraneo. Il colore della luce featured about 50 paintings from the 1970s through today.

In April 2011, the Foundation was invited to participate for the second time in the International Opportunities in the Arts conference in Boston, Massachusetts. This bi-annual event is the only forum of its kind for networking, showcasing and promoting international opportunities for artists and humanists. Vice President Laura Harrison gave a presentation to nearly 200 attendees who gathered from all over the world to learn about the Bogliasco Foundation's Fellowship Program, followed by a presentation by Bogliasco Fellow Lajos Heder ('10). That same weekend, Larry Berman, a long-time friend of the Foundation and member of our Advisory Committee, hosted a reception at his home in Brookline, Massachusetts that was attended by Fellows and special guests, including Boston Consul General Giuseppe Pastorelli.

On April 27, 2011, the Foundation's Trustees and supporters came together at The Drawing Center in New York City for a private tour of the exhibition, Drawing and Its Double, featuring selections from the Istituto Nazionale per la Grafica in Rome. The tour was led by The Drawing Center's Executive Director, Brett Littman, and was followed by an artist talk given by Paolo Canevari.

In June 2011, the Foundation was pleased to participate again in the annual Festival Internazionale di Poesia in Genoa. We would like to thank Bogliasco Fellows Kevin Craft ('02), William Wall ('09), Stephen Ludmilla Wieszner ('10), and Claude Helft ('10) for reading their work.

OUR GENEROUS DONORS

The Bogliasco Foundation is pleased to thank all of the individuals and organizations whose generosity makes our work possible.

“I have described to friends and family my 32 days in Bogliasco as the most intellectually stimulating month of my life.”

SOCIETÀ DI AMICI

We are deeply grateful to the members of our Società di Amici, the Foundation's annual membership program for supporters who contribute $1,000 or more. Società di Amici members receive benefits such as invitations to exclusive events, signed works by Bogliasco Fellows, and, in some cases, opportunities to visit the Liguria Study Center and have dinner with the Fellows.
