Announcing the Bogliasco Foundation Fall 2016 Fellows

We are very pleased to announce the recipients of our Fall 2016 Fellowships – a group of 24 artists and scholars representing 11 countries and 9 disciplines. Our new Fellows will arrive at the Study Center starting in September, and plan to pursue projects including a historical film on China's Qing Dynasty, a chamber opera cycle based on short stories by Jorge Luis Borges, and a play about chance encounters on Twitter.

We are also very pleased to announce our Edward T. Cone Bogliasco Fellow in Music, innovative Turkish-American composer Yigit Kolat. Thanks to support from the Edward T. Cone Foundation, Kolat will work on a piece for string quartet -- and transducer -- during his Fall 2016 residency.

RECENT EVENTS

Visit our gallery for photos of the 2016 International Poetry Festival in Genoa. Five Bogliasco Fellows were chosen to read their work at this prestigious annual event.

are deeply grateful to all who have made it possible for us to celebrate 20 years of supporting creativity in the arts and humanities.

“The Bogliasco Foundation is a wonderful institution, both for the way it brings together creative artists from so many fields with academics and for the unmatched beauty of the site in which it installs them so comfortably and so companionably for a month. Long may it flourish.”

–Jonathan Culler, Literature Scholarship Fellow, Spring 2016

“The month in Bogliasco was extraordinary, a singular experience. There was something about the place that gave me clarity and tranquility. The hours seemed to expand and I was so much more productive.”

–Ramona Diaz, Film/Video Fellow, Fall 2015
